

Come enjoy the beautiful outdoors with us! The Heavner Family has been operating since 1953 less than an hours drive from Detroit, offering wilderness paddling close to home. Have an “up north” experience close to home on the beautiful Huron River, where the gentle current allows beginners and experts alike to enjoy the scenery and sounds of creation. You can choose from several locations to suit your needs:

- From “The Original” Heavner Canoe, located in the Proud Lake Recreation Area on Garden Rd near Milford, you have the choice of paddling upstream for up to 3 hours through 4000 acres of unspoiled state land, or downstream from 2 hours to 2 days through the quaint Village of Milford, Kensington Metropark and Island Lake State Recreation Area.
- From the Proud Lake Campground, explore the lake or paddle downstream into the same river that connects to “The Original” Heavner Canoe. Available for registered campers only.
- From the Kensington Metropark location, enjoy self-return lake paddling leaving from the Shorefishing Parking lot.

We’re proud of our community and our river – and we know you’ll share our passion once you try it yourself. See you on the water!
